The "Cheat Sheet"

Some important MSS to watch for in variation units
(See also the relevant pages in Anderson/Widder.)

Any papyrus MS should be mentioned. (Assume Alexandrian textual affiliation.)

Majuscules:

א (Hebrew letter aleph)	Sinaiticus	01	4th c	Alex/West
A	Alexandrinus	02	5th	Alex/Byz
B	Vaticanus	03	4th	Best Alex
C	Ephraimi Rescriptus	04	5th	Alexandrian
D (in the Gospels/Acts)	Bezae	05	5th	Best Western
D (in the rest of the NT)	Claromontanus	05	6th	Western
W	Washingtonianus	032	4th/5th	Caesarean
Θ	Koridethi	038	9th	Caesarean

Minuscules:

Byz or Gothic M stands for the largest group of minuscules, those that represent the Byzantine grouping. Some of the important MSS that differ significantly from this group are listed below. The minuscules listed below that are not given a designation have some Alexandrian readings, and are constantly cited because of their pretty decent text, but they also tend to have some Byzantine affiliation.

In the Gospels:

Family 1	(1 205 209 1582 2193) Caesarean
Family 13	(13 69) Caesarean
33
157
565	Many singular readings
579
700
892
1424

Rest of the NT:

33
1739	Alex
1881	